36 CFR 261.58 (cc)

Definitions

1. "Bear resistant container" means a securable container constructed of solid non-pliable material capable of withstanding 200 foot-pounds of energy (using the approved bear resistant container impact testing machine). When secured and under stress the container will not have any cracks, openings, or hinges that would allow a bear to gain entry by biting or pulling with its claws. Wood containers are not considered bear resistant unless they are reinforced with metal.
2. "Food" means any nourishing substance, solid or liquid (excluding baled hay or water) or refuse thereof, that is not native to the immediate area, which is or may be eaten or otherwise taken into the body to sustain life, provide energy, or promote growth of any person or animal.
3. "Acceptable storage" means
 - Stored in a bear-resistant container or;
 - Stored in a closed vehicle constructed of solid, nonpliable material or;
 - Suspended at least ten feet clear of the ground at all points and four feet horizontally from any supporting limb or pole.
 - Disposed of in provided bear resistant trash receptacles.

Pursuant to 36 CFR, Section 261.50 (e), the following persons or areas are exempt from this Order:

1. Persons with a special use permit specifically authorizing the otherwise prohibited act or omission, issued by the District Ranger.
2. Any Federal, State, or local officer, or member of an organized rescue or firefighting force in the performance of an official duty.

Executed in Cleveland, Tennessee, this 18 day of May, 2012.
